FOREWORD

News is an integral portion of our daily lives, enriching them and adding to their fullness. Preserving a record of these moments and the countless other experiences, you and your classmates enjoy, the SKANDHA strives to capture these newsworthy accomplishments in leadership, scholarship, citizenship, athletics, music, dramatics, and character.

We of the SKANDHA staff, therefore, hope to elaborate these moments of glory throughout our yearbook with our theme--Logan Elm makes the news.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

Following all the apprehension. . .disappointment from falling decorations that took hours to arrange. . .repairing the calamities. . .applying the finishing touches. . .and finally observing the finished product, the Junior-Senior Banquet decorations were ready.

The cool, balmy night added the distinct atmosphere necessary for a "Polynesian Holiday." Entering the paradise, a perpetual flowing fountain was the first greeting followed by a refreshing tropical dream. This built us up for a tropical feast in the Polynesian dining room.

After a wonderful feast and program, we went to the All County Junior-Senior Prom at the coliseum. We then returned to the Island to see the movie, "On the Waterfront." Our holiday was ended with an early morning breakfast.

One of the big moments in the junior year is the day the class rings are selected. Pictured above are three of our class officers looking over the selection of rings offered by the Herff Jones Company.

A highlight in the lives of all juniors is the day they finally receive their class rings. The ring is a symbol of education, a symbol of the pride which a person has in his alma mater. These rings will be cherished by the owners and admired by others for years to come.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, governing body for the high school, is composed of one representative from each homeroom. The Council attempts to create and maintain standards of good citizenship among students. During the basketball season, the Council was very busy selling penants and ribbons. This project contributed greatly in adding school spirit. The Student Council also made all of the arrangements for the homecoming. They were assisted by the varsity and reserve cheerleaders.

HOMECOMING COURT

As the halftime of the reserve game drew near, five queens and their escorts waited nervously to be introduced to the awaiting crowd. The first strains of the theme, "Beyond the Sea," were then heard and apprehension mounted as freshman attendant, Page Miller, was escorted in by Chuck Spangler. After the crowd quieted down, Pat Keller, sophomore attendant, was escorted in by Lennie Hardman. A few minutes later, Janie Russell, junior attendant, entered with Brad Huffines at her side. Following soon afterwards, came Norma Huffer, senior attendant, escorted by Dave Horn. Then a hushed silence hung over the excited crowd, only to be sharply broken by a tremendous sound of applause for the 1962 Homecoming Queen, Carol Torchick, escorted by Roger Clarke, captain of the basketball team. After the crowning and traditional kissing of the queen, all five young ladies were escorted to their thrones.

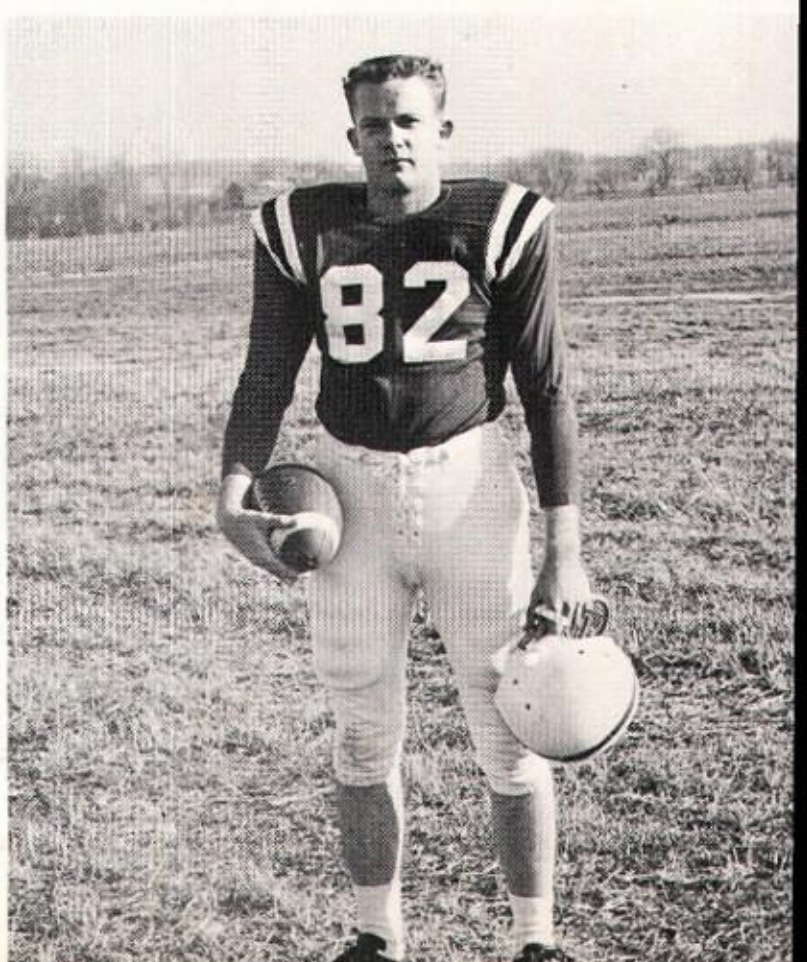
DICK DEAN, MOST VALUABLE PLAYER



COURTRIGHT MARKET
KINGSTON, OHIO

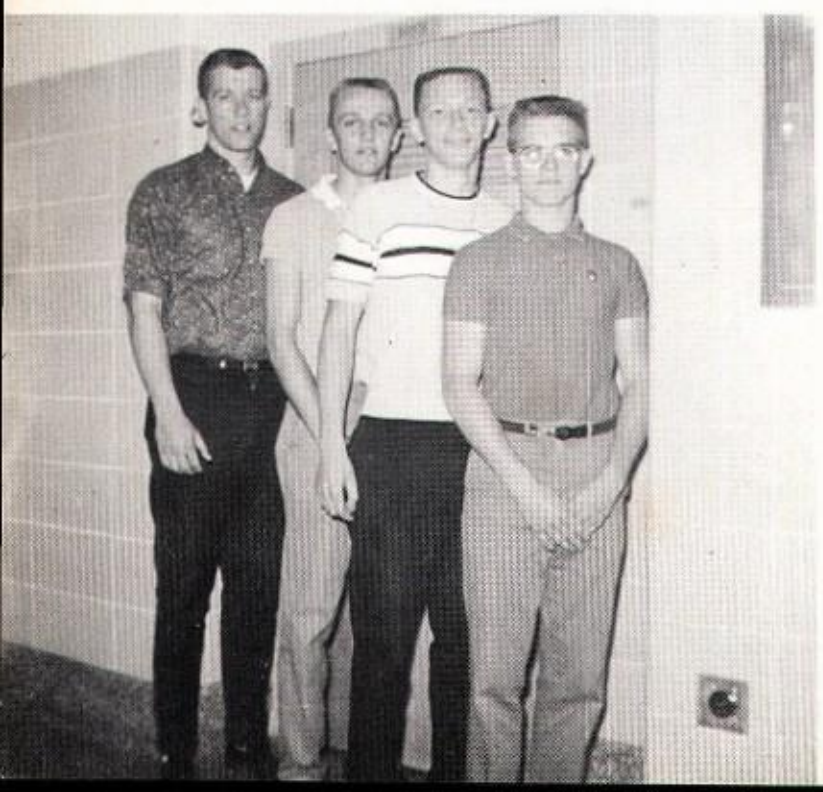
The Logan Elm Braves compiled a very impressive record for the season. The Braves were both humble winners and gracious losers. The team aroused much interest and enthusiasm which was shown by the support of many loyal fans. Being one of the top eight teams in the state is one of the honors which the Braves earned. Because of this fine team, Logan Elm is known as the "Home of the Braves."



On April 23, 1962, the second annual basketball banquet was held to honor the Braves. The event, sponsored by the Booster Club, was held in the gym to accommodate the huge crowds that follow famed Jerry Lucas, our guest speaker.

On the program, as one of the anticipated moments, was the presentation of the special awards. This year they were given as follows:

Gary Hardman . .Most improved player
Dave Horn . . . .Most improved player
Danny Hicks. . . . Leading rebounder
Chuck Spangler. . Most valuable player

TRACK

Along in March when other heroes had settled back for the leisure life of a sports celebrity, our cindermen had just begun practice. Instead of their thoughts drifting to spring fever and all its accompanying symptoms, they concentrated on getting and keeping in shape. The following score shows how their efforts paid off in the county track meet:

| | |
|---|---|
| Logan Elm | 84 |
| Ashville | 72 1/2 |
| Williamsport | 42 |
| Walnut | 9 |
| Darby | 8 |
| Scioto | 6 1/2 |

The Braves had an outstanding season this year with first place in the Pickaway County League with a record of 5 and 0. In the Scioto Valley the Braves ranked second with a 2 and 1 record.

PEP CLUB

Our Pep Club deserves the headlines in our theme, "Logan Elm makes the news". For not only did they give their audible support at games, but at all pep assemblies. Throughout the year our assemblies ranged from "Gunsmoke" to "This is Your Life", and from a football game to Skunk Hollow Cheerleaders.

WHEN THE LAST LAYOUT has been drawn, the last copy written, the final proof checked, deadline worries for the '62 SKANDHA staff are over. Winding up their work on the SKANDHA, Editor, Brad Huffines and Layout Editor, Carol Torchick sort and discard the returned copy and pictures which represent so many well-spent hours.
